Mr. Robert Hargraves

President S. E. A.

On October 22nd. I wrote a letter to you requesting information as to the availability of the Servel Picnic Grounds for the Tri-State Amateur Society Annual Hamfest on the last Sunday of August or some Sunday near that time. So far I have not received an answer necessary for us to make definite plans. Would you kindly advise me whether or not we can have the use of the grounds? Your reply will be appreciated.

Sincerely Yours,

Mr. Hargraves:

For several years the Tri-State Amateur Radio Society held its annual HAMFEST at the Servel Picnic Grounds, and as far as is known, no complaints were to be heard. However in 1953, because of certain rules of the SEA, we were obliged to give up using the Picnic Grounds, mainly since we advertise our Annual HAMFEST in our national magazines and they require their copy at least two months in advance. It seems that the SEA people then would not definitely say, two months in advance that the TARS could be sure of using the grounds on such and such a date.

Many TARS members have asked that an attempt be made to again secure the area for our 1955 HAMFEST, to be held as far as we know now on the last Sunday of AUGUST, 1955, August 28. We would appreciate hearing from you on the possibility of securing the area for that date, and also about any requirements such as may be necessary. TARS plans are begun quite some time in advance and any data you may be able to furnish will be of considerable assistance to us in formulating these plans.

Thank You,

Fred Sawyer, W9FJI

American Radio Relay League

The Tri-State Amateur Radio Society is incorporated under the laws of Indiana as a non-profit organization. We do have quite a bit of property and conduct affairs each year such as our TARS HAMFEST which nets the Society a sum of money. We have been notified by the US Treasury to file certain papers showing our assets, and other items to prove our claim to being a non profit organization. We are wondering if, from your vast experience, you might be able to advise as to various steps to take in preparing these forms. We, in particular, are concerned as to the profit we make each year from our activities, since some information has been received that at least 85% of our yearly income must come from membership dues. In our case, this does not hold true as the HAMFEST nets us considerable more than 15% of our income.

Do you have any suggestions to offer for us to follow? We are not rushed for time in filing these papers, but would like to thoroughly clarify our position before we do anything.

Many Thanks for aid previously given,

Mr. S. L. Dixon
Chairman I. R. C. C.

Dear Mr. Dixon:

The Tri-State Amateur Radio Society, headquarters in Evansville, Indiana, hereby recommend that Benjamin S. Zieg, W9JHU, be named the outstanding Indiana Amateur for 1954. (His address is 2614 Adams Avenue, Evansville, Indiana.)

During the year of 1954, under the dynamic leadership as President, the Tri-State Amateur Radio Society experienced its most successful and progressive year.

By personal enthusiasm in promoting interest in Amateur Radio we increased our membership by 30 new members, which was a percentage gain of 40%.

As the presiding officer he made each meeting a stimulating experience by insisting on proper decorum. He constantly worked for, and achieved, better organization and presentation of programs at meetings. The meetings improved because he held officers' and directors' meetings every month.

He promoted the purchase of a Ditto machine to facilitate publication of our monthly TARS magazine. This resulted in a bigger and more interesting publication.

He displayed great ingenuity and sacrificed hours of extra time in completing our project for a mobile communications center. Because of the effort he expended, we now have a complete mobile operations center. Handling of the details was not easy. This is what he did:

1. Completed final papers in purchasing a 22-foot house trailer.
2. Drove to Morganfield, Kentucky, and returned the trailer to Evansville during January.
3. Spent twelve week-ends with other members removing burned inside parts of trailer, replacing the ceiling with new material, building operating table, rewiring for power, sanding and painting all the interior and some of the exterior. Thus the expense of the completed unit - like new - was less than $250.00.

4. Promoted the gift of a Plymouth pickup truck with clear title at no cost to the society.
5. Promoted the gift of an Onan three kilowatt gas powered generator for emergency use.
6. Obtained a small trailer to carry the generator at a price of only forty dollars.
7. Led a campaign among the members in securing a Hammerlund HQ-129X receiver at no cost to the society treasurer.
8. Obtained as a gift, two, forty-foot push-up towers for use with the emergency unit as antenna masts.
9. He promoted the purchase of an excellent late model Meissner Signal Shifter for only thirty dollars for use in the trailer.
10. Instigated plans for obtaining an all band transmitter for use in the trailer.

Every member of our organization feels that his personal attention helped us complete this important project.

His energy was expended in many other ways which stimulated Amateur Radio activity. These points should be mentioned:

1. Completed a tie with the local Civilian Defense for activating RACES.
2. Organized and operated the Society Field Day Activities for a score of 2076 points which placed us second in the State and twenty-third nationally.
3. Acted as administrator in planning and staging the most successful TARS Annual Hamfest with 275 amateur registrations and more than 600 present.
4. Encouraged co-operation with ARRL Emergency Corps through the local Co-Ordinator and assisted in monthly drills with TARS members.
5. Co-operated with the Indiana Radio Club Council for the betterment of amateur radio on a state-wide basis. He served as a delegate at the fall meeting in Bloomington, Indiana.
6. Worked with the TARS TVI committee to solve all interference problems in a amicable manner.
7. Supervised and participated in TARS transmitter hunts during the warmer months for the interest and education of TARS members.

TRI-STATE AMATEUR RADIO SOCIETY

ILLINOIS - KENTUCKY - INDIANA

EVANSVILLE, INDIANA

8. Appointed a legal committee to investigate possibility of Incorporation of the Tri-State Amateur Radio Society as a non-profit organization under Indiana laws. During the month of August 1954 this measure was realized at a total cost of only $6.50.
9. Appointed a trustee to execute necessary papers in obtaining an amateur station license for the society and we were assigned the call letters W9LIT.
10. Encouraged the TARS members to obtain amateur call letter plates for their automobiles from the State of Indiana with a high percentage of members obtaining the plates.
11. Assisted many of the young licensee club members to secure equipment and operate same in a proper manner technically. One individual, an older Surgeon and a new Ham, would not be a Ham in 1954 if it had not been for this personal interest that Ben will always take.
12. Helped secure designation by Governor Craig for Amateur Radio week in Indiana, as the third week in June.

Individually he participated in all club operating contests and many ARRL contests. W9EHU is a model example to all other amateurs on operating procedures on both phone and C.W. He has contacted over 126 countries and has QSL confirmation for 96 towards DXCC. This is proof of good operating procedure and interest in this game of Amateur Radio.

Dear OM:

ARRL General Manager A. L. Budlong, W1BUD, is planning to attend the Southwestern Division Convention at San Diego, and has arranged an itinerary to stop off at several points on his return trip for the purpose of visiting affiliated clubs. His itinerary calls for arrival in Evansville on Tuesday, October 18.

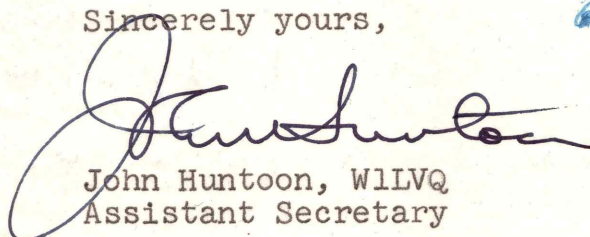

While we realize this may not be your regular meeting night, it is our hope that the Tri-State Amateur Radio Society will undertake to sponsor a general meeting of amateurs in the area for that evening, to provide an opportunity for mutual discussion of amateur radio affairs in general, and League matters in particular.

I am sure you are familiar with the pattern of such meetings, from previous visits which have been made to Evansville by members of the Headquarters staff.

Please let me hear from you as soon as possible as to whether a meeting can be held, and the time and place.

With cordial 73,

On August 28th, The Tri-State Amateur Radio Society will hold its annual HAMFEST. It is our intention to give away a HEATH DX-100 Transmitter as well as some other HEATH Kits. Just now we are wondering whether or not we can get delivery on the Transmitter by August or not? Would you let us know as soon as possible? Your letter will permit the Committee to finalize the HAMFEST plans.

I was at the DAYTON HAMFEST and there met W8VFN, to whom I have been sending the TRI-STATE SPARKS, our local bulletin. Not having the last Call Book, I do not know his name- can you furnish? He said he was with the HEATH Company.

Would the HEATH Company be able at this time to tell us whether or not they would be able to donate any HEATH KITS to the TARS for the HAMFEST? This information would certainly be of invaluable assistance to the Committee in making its plans. As I said, we do intend to buy some KITS, all depending on just what the future may show.

Many Thanks for your past assistance to TARS,

To All Affiliated Clubs and Radio Hams:

For your immediate action it has been voted by the Indiana Radio Club Council Inc. to change the regulations regarding the computing of field day contest points.

Any club competing for the annual I.R.C.C. award will submit their entries according to the following rules:

1. The Club shall submit the ~~best~~ log of one transmitter, whether the club operates one or more than one transmitter.
2. One transmitter shall be defined as one physical transmitter. No substitutions shall be allowed for purposes of band switching or for break-down.
3. This transmitter may work any band or any type of emission authorized by the A.R.R.L. Field contest rules.

AND-OR ALL BANDS

The Council secretary, the affiliated clubs, their amateur friends and members, are all requested to write the Congressman of the United States requesting a week be designated as National Amateur Radio Week.

With the new legislation now in effect regarding the licensing of all motor vehicles, it was passed unanimously to have the Council secretary write to the State Commissioner of Motor Vehicles, Morris J. Carter, regarding the position of the amateur, and the Ham Plate.

It was felt that the $5.00 charge was exorbitant, and a bit out of line with the new bill effective next year. (At which date one tag is issued each year.)

~~Also, it was requested that all amateur clubs and members request the commissioner for information regarding the position of hams in the new law.~~

A request is made for any old photographs taken at any I.R.C.C. function. These will be used at the convention this fall by the council Historian.

It will behoove everyone of us to act quickly on every one of these matters, as they effect us personally.

Sincerely,
